

SSSSB Story 041a: The Girl with Questions [5-12 years]

There once was a girl who was 7 years old. She loved to ask questions — every day, all the time!

One morning, she sat on her bed and wondered: "What is the most important thing in life?"

She was excited to know the answer from different people.

So she picked up her notebook and pink pen, put on her shoes, and went out to ask.

She asked 5 people she loved: "What is the most important thing in your life?"

1. Her little brother said: "Playing! Running! Jumping! That's the best!"
2. Her mummy said: "Loving you and your little brother, and keeping you safe."
3. Her grandpa said: "When our family is happy and kind to each other."
4. Her teacher said: "Helping children learn new things."
5. Her best friend said: "I want to find out too! Let's ask the SSSSB children!"

Now it's your turn!

Question and Heart-Work: If she asked you: "What is the most important thing in life?" What would you say?
