

Setup:

- Children stand in pairs, facing each other like mirrors.
- Teacher explains: “Whatever you show, your friend will reflect back. Let’s practice kindness and good manners together.”

How to Play:

1. One child says or does a kind action (e.g., smile, say “thank you,” or “act a kindness action”).
2. The partner must “mirror” it back with the same kindness in action or polite word.
3. After a few turns, they switch roles.
4. If someone forgets or uses unkind words, the group gently reminds them “Don’t be sad. You can always start again. Choose kindness!”

Ending:

- Each pair shares one kind word or good manner they enjoyed most.
- As a group, they chant together: “Good manners make happy hearts!”
