

Materials

- Role cards: Good Girl (Rita), Curious Teacher, Principal, Classmates – all have to play small roles
- Value tokens (small paper stars or hearts)
- A basket called “SSSSB Basket”

How to Play

1. Assign Roles: One child plays Rita, one plays the Teacher, one plays the principal, and the rest are Classmates.
2. Round 1 – Observation: Rita quietly helps a classmate (e.g., arranging books). The Teacher watches silently.
3. Round 2 – Inquiry: The Teacher asks Rita why she is so good. Rita explains the SSSSB class and Swami’s teaching: “Think good, speak good, do good.” Rita places one star in the basket.
4. Round 3 – Transformation: The Teacher joins the SSSSB class (pretend) and then shows kindness to classmates (e.g., saying something encouraging). Classmates respond joyfully and place stars in the basket.
5. Round 4 – Recognition: The Principal enters, notices the positive change, and asks the Teacher the reason. The Teacher replies: “It is the power of the Soul Blossom path.” The Principal adds a star to the basket.

Joyful Ending

All children chant together: “Think good, speak good, do good — the Soul Blossom path makes us blossom with values!”
