

🇬🇧 SSSSB Story 037a: Start Now! You Already Have Enough [5-12 years]

Boy A was 7, and Boy B was 8. They were best friends who often dreamed big talk after school. T

Boy A said: One day, when I have everything, I will do great things!

Boy B replied: “Yes! When I’m big and rich, I will help people too!”

Then they paused.

Boy B asked: “Why are we waiting?”

Boy A agreed: “We can start helping people now! “ we can start with smaller things”.

So they did! They began little acts of sewa (loving service)

- Helping their parents at home
- Picking up trash on the street
- Sharing snacks at school
- Smiling at people who looked sad
- Speaking kind words to lift others’ hearts

Soon, people noticed. Even teacher said, “These little boys show us that kindness can begin right now!”

Boy A exclaimed: “We didn’t need to wait to be big!”

Boy B smiled, “We already had everything we needed to help.”

Though only 7 and 8 years old, they became helpers, leaders, and examples. And every day, their small acts of love made the world little brighter.

Question and Heat-Work: What small kind things can you do today?
