

🇬🇧 SSSSB Story 047a: The Story of the Parakeet and Two Boys [5-12 years]

Once upon a time, there were two boys of 7 years old.

Boy 1: "Do you think we can make a story?"

Boy 2: "I don't know... maybe that's too difficult."

At that moment, a colorful parakeet flew towards them.

Parakeet: "Sairam, tweet-tweet! Boys, making a story is not difficult. You just need to be creative and trust that you can do it."

The boys looked surprised.

Boy 1: "Sairam parakeet, so we don't need to be afraid of making mistakes?"

Parakeet: "Exactly! Everyone makes mistakes. But those who dare, learn and grow. You can both do it!"

The boys smiled. They took their notebooks and began to think of a story.

Boy 1: "Creative parakeet, can you please help us with the beginning?"

Parakeet: "Of course! Shall we make a story about a Grandma and Grandpa who couldn't go to school in the past? Because there was no school in their village, they cannot read and write well."

Boy 2: "Yes, let's do that! Then we children can think of ways to help Grandma and Grandpa."

Boy 1: "I also just got some ideas to help them learn reading and writing!"

The parakeet fluttered happily with its wings.

Parakeet: "And I also have an idea! I will fly to my own Grandpa and Grandma parrot, and I will teach them in parrot-language how to read and write. Tweet-tweet, Sairam! Good luck making it into a wonderful story!"

Now the two boys had a lot of confidence in themselves. Idea after idea came to their minds.

They wanted the other children from the SSSSB class to also become more creative.

So they said: "Let's keep our secret, and ask the SSSSB class children to finish the story themselves!"

Question and Heart-Work: Continue the story. Make sure you add a good message, so that the story is not only fun but also teaches something to everyone.