

🇬🇧 Physical Class Game – The Book of Ministers - SSSSB Story 049

Materials: A big notebook or paper sheets (to act as the “magical book”), and a small object (the “Minister’s Crown” token).

How to Play:

1. Children sit in a circle. The teacher explains: “The king and queen are looking for ministers who understand love, kindness, and respect.”
2. The teacher opens the “magical book” (the notebook) and pretends to read names. Each child’s name is called one by one.
3. When a child’s name is read, they receive the “Minister’s Crown” token and must say one kind or fair rule they would make for the school. Examples:
 1. “Everyone should share toys.”
 2. “We must respect animals and plants.”
 3. “No one is small, no one is big.”
4. After speaking, they pass the crown to the next child.
5. At the end, the teacher says: “In God’s creation, every child is equal, every voice matters, and kindness is the greatest subject of all.”
6. Everyone cheers together and clap
7. Two children pretend as Parrot and act like flapping wings and say: “Sairam! Sairam!”
