

🇬🇧 SSSSB Story 052b: The Taste of Kindness [13+ years]

The lunch bell rang, and students eagerly opened their lunch boxes. The classroom filled with the aroma of delicious homemade food.

At the last bench, Kavya searched her school bag again and again. Her lunch box was missing. She had forgotten it at home.

Sia noticed and offered to share her lunch, but Kavya refused, not wanting her friend to go hungry.

Suddenly, Sia had an idea. She stood up and said, "Can everyone spare just one spoonful from their lunch?"

At first, the class was surprised. Then one student added a piece of his roll, another shared a sandwich, someone added fruit, and soon everyone joined in.

Within minutes, the empty plate was filled with a colorful variety of food. Kavya was overwhelmed with joy.

"I thought I'd stay hungry today," she said. "Instead, I got the best lunch ever. Thanks a lot to everyone for making my day".

Their teacher smiled and said, "This is the true meaning of teamwork. When everyone gives a little, together they create something wonderful."

The idea soon spread throughout the school. Whenever someone forgot their lunch, the class happily started the Taste of Kindness Challenge, turning small acts of kindness into a memorable meal.
