

🇬🇧 SSSSB Story 053a: Which Game to Play? [5-12 years]

It was playtime at school.

Paya said: "Let's play hide and seek!"

Rohan said: "No, I want to play football."

Sara said: "I like skipping rope."

Ali said: "Let's draw together."

Everyone wanted something different. Little Anya stood and thought:

"What should I do? I can't make everyone happy!"

Then she remembered what she had learned at SSSSB:

"Listen to others, learn from them, but choose what feels good in your own heart."

So Anya smiled and said: "Today I will play skipping rope, because that makes me happy. Tomorrow I can try your games too!"

The children agreed, and everyone felt good.

Question and Heart-Work: When your friends want something different, how do you decide what to do?
